

1233

1912 Dates J-BK

Heretical and Schismatic movements began among the

① PAULITIANS

② CATHARI

③ ALBIGENSES 12th-14th cen

④ WALDENSIANS

⑤ others

The Ingersoll was formed to halt Abolitionism and slowly over 100 years the movement died.

The Teutonic Knights settled on the von Vestula in the service of the Polish duke, Conrad of Mazovia, & in 1233, with an army of central German volunteers, it set out to conquer and Christianize the pagan population of the Baltic lands later known as Prussia. During the next 50 yrs the native population was virtually wiped out and replaced by a knightly aristocracy.

which state, called Ordenstaat, was confirmed in its integrity by pope & emperor. So the junker ("young lord") class that was to play so large a role in Germany's future was born. The Teutonic Knights extended agriculture and expanded the already lucrative Prussian grain trade. By 1300, when they established established a capital in Marienburg, they ruled over a vast feudal kingdom that included Prussia and the eastern Baltic, Pomerania & lands in Central and South Germany

C1233

Inquisition system instigated by the Roman Catholic Church for the discovery, examination and punishment of heretics in central and south Europe 13th - 19th centuries; began when Dominicans investigated the Albigenses in south France

C1233